

PIONEER 5 - renal impairmentCategory

Diabetes

Enrollment Closing Date

Jun 30, 2017

Description

Robert R. Henry, M.D. and his research team at the VA San Diego Healthcare System are conducting a research study to compare the effect of on blood sugar level and safety of study drug semaglutide versus placebo in subjects with Type 2 Diabetes and decreased kidney function.

Requirements

You have Type 2 Diabetes and moderate renal impairment. Taking Metformin only or Metformin and glipzide or glyburide, Basal insulin alone (insulin glargine, insulin detemir, insulin degludec or NPH insulin) or Metformin and basal insulin.

Benefits

The information that is obtained during this study may be useful scientifically and thus be helpful to others with the same condition in the future.

Contact
Information*Name Jackie RacelesPhone 858-552-8585 x 4384